

Biological Control of Sagittaria

21st September 2017

A seminar to bring you up to speed on past, present and future research on the biological control of sagittaria in Australia.

Program

11.00am - welcome

11.10am

Is sagittaria a suitable target for biological control in Australia?

Dr Raelene Kwong, Project Leader

11.40am

Risk assessment of sagittaria biological control agents.

Jackie Steel, Research Scientist and PhD candidate

12.10am

Future directions and general discussion

Dr Raelene Kwong

Thursday, 21st September 2017

JENKINS HALL, NEAR THE ENTRANCE TO LANE COVE NATIONAL PARK OFF
LADY GAME DRIVE, LINDFIELD, NSW
2067

Australian Government
Department of Agriculture and Water Resources

This project is supported by Agriculture Victoria, through funding from the Australian Government Department of Agriculture and Water Resources as part of its Rural R&D for Profit programme and other partner organisations.

Register by Wednesday, 20th September:

Matt Springall
Lane Cove National Park
matthew.springall@environment.nsw.gov.au
mob. 0419 753 806

For further information:

Raelene Kwong, Agriculture Victoria

Rae.kwong@ecodev.vic.gov.au

Mobile: 0409 965 471

